

All schools by law must follow the Department for Education’s statutory guidance relating to school attendance. They must use the appropriate national attendance, G attendance code, and follow the criteria set out within the guidance. The statutory guidance states:

- A leave of absence must not be granted unless there are exceptional circumstances and must be requested in advance
- A leave of absence must be requested in advance by a parent who the pupil normally lives with
- Schools must judge each application individually, considering the specific reasons, circumstances and relevant background context behind each request
- Where a leave of absence is granted, the school will determine the number of days a pupil can be absent from school
- A need or desire for a holiday or other absence for the purpose of leisure and recreation would not constitute an exceptional circumstance
- A school cannot grant a leave of absence retrospectively. If the parent did not apply in advance, the leave of absence should not be granted
- Where this guidance refers to a parent, the school and/or local authority will need to decide which adult(s) is most appropriate. Generally, parents includes all natural parents, whether they are married or not; all those who have parental responsibility and those who have day to day responsibility for the child

Attendance Matters at Haven High. Taking your child out of school during term time could be detrimental to their educational progress. Parents should be aware that:

- Requests for leave of absence from school during term time should be made at least 20 school days (4 school weeks) in advance of the leave commencing, but completing the form below
- The child’s current attendance, their attendance in previous years and previous unauthorised absences will be considered alongside the reasons for this leave in deciding if the leave will be authorised
- If the absence is not authorised and the leave is taken, schools may refer to the Local Authority for legal action. Please find below information regarding Penalty Notice Fines for School Attendance.
