EDAN Children's Support Service

EDAN run structured and personalised domestic abuse support for children.

- Family focus sessions – Either 2 or 3 family focus sessions, where the CYP practitioner adopts a family approach with the non-abusive parent and child/ren to rebuild bonds that have been broken down due to the effects of domestic abuse.
- 1:1 sessions – Up to 6 sessions with the child/young person offering emotional and practical support, safety planning, exploring healthy and unhealthy relationships, building self-esteem and self-worth.
- Group work via zoom or MS Teams – up to 4 sessions for young people aged between 12 and 16 years old, work will be very similar to the 1:1 sessions but delivered online and in a group setting.
- Building blocks course – This is a course for parents to enable them to understand the impact of domestic abuse on children and young people, how it makes them feel and the best way to help them to heal and recover.
